

General Conditions for Sale and Supply L 805 E

I. Definitions

In these General Conditions for Sale and Supply for export the following expressions shall have the meaning as herein after set out:

- "The Conditions" means these General Conditions for Sale and Supply for export.
- "SNAP-ON" means SNAP-ON EQUIPMENT GMBH, field of business of SNAP-ON Holding GmbH including its subsidiaries, holding corporations or firms or related corporations or firms.
- "The Customer" means any person, firm or corporation or legal assignee or successor of such person, firm or corporation.
- "The Goods" means those items which are specified in SNAP-ON written confirmation of order.
- "The reserved Goods" means those items sold and delivered in which title has not yet passed to the Customer including any new products manufactured or constructed by using such items.
- "The Contract" means the agreement between the Customer and SNAP-ON for Sale and Supply of the Goods to the Customer.

II. General

- (1) The Customer accepts that these Conditions shall apply to all legal relations including transactions in future between itself and SNAP-ON to the exclusion of any other terms including any conditions, warranties or representations written or oral, expressed or implied, even if contained in any of the Customer's documents (i.e. the Customer's Standard Conditions for Purchase). Such conditions, warranties or representations are hereby expressly rejected.
- (2) Any variation from these Conditions as well as verbal, telegraphic or telephonic statements made by representatives, employees or agents of SNAP-ON are always provisional and require in order to be binding SNAP-ON confirmation in writing which has to be signed by a person authorized to act for and on behalf of SNAP-ON. Any confirmation by telex, telefax, e-mail shall be sufficient.

III. Scope of Delivery

- (1) The scope of delivery is determined by SNAP-ON written confirmation of order.
- (2) If not expressly declared to be binding technical data are only approximate data. Weights and measures are given within the allowed tolerances of technical rules or the tolerances of the German Industrial Norms for measures, form and weight. The same applies to all further data and information contained in any other document in particular illustrations, drawings, descriptions, catalogues which intend merely to give a general description of the Goods that SNAP-ON is able to supply and any person reading them may not rely on anything contained therein as being a representation of fact concerning the Goods sold and delivered by SNAP-ON or any warranty relating thereto whether as to their condition or otherwise. SNAP-ON reserves the right to permanently modify the technical conditions of SNAP-ON products. Therefore, all data is subject to modifications. Any public statements or advertisements are not binding and do in no way constitute an agreement about the quality of the Goods nor a guarantee according to the quality of the Goods or according to the fitness of the Goods for a specific purpose or according to the long-lastingness of the goods. In case the Customer attaches importance to specific data mentioned in such public statements or advertisements including but not limited to leaflets, catalogues, illustrations and drawings, the Customer shall verify the correctness of such data at the moment in time the contract is concluded. Furthermore, for the quality of the Goods or for their fitness for a specific purpose only SNAP-ON description of the product made in SNAP-ON offer shall be binding between the parties.
- (3) SNAP-ON reserves title and copyrights and/or rights of author in any documents in respect of the Goods in particular drawings and estimates of costs. Such documents as aforesaid may only be used within the purpose under the Contract. The Customer is not allowed to disclose any such document as aforesaid to any third party without prior written consent of SNAP-ON. Upon SNAP-ON request any such document has to be returned to SNAP-ON.
- (4) If not otherwise agreed upon in writing safety devices shall only be within the scope of delivery if such safety devices are required according to the technical standards then valid.
- (5) Any building work including earth work, brick work and concrete work, the installation, the connection and the commissioning of the Goods as well as the giving of operating instructions to the personnel are not within SNAP-ON scope of delivery.

- (6) Upon request of the Customer SNAP-ON shall provide trained installation personnel for the installation, the commissioning and the instruction on the basis of SNAP-ON General Conditions for Installation then valid. The relative costs shall be borne by the Customer.
- (7) The unloading of the Goods or parts thereof and the transport of such items from the place of unloading to the place of installation are within the responsibility of the Customer. The relative costs shall be borne by the Customer even if SNAP-ON is delivering freight prepaid.
- (8) The Customer is responsible for any safety precautions whatsoever imposed by the plant conditions. SNAP-ON liability in that respect is expressly excluded. The exclusion of liability as aforesaid shall not apply in such cases in which SNAP-ON shall provide the installation and start-up according to III. (6) of the Conditions but always provided that SNAP-ON shall only be liable for grossly negligent or wilful acts.

IV. Prices and Terms of Payment

- (1) Subject to any specific agreement in writing prices are ex works plus the statutory value-added tax in the amount as from time to time in force, if any.
- (2) Subject to any specific terms of payment the price must be paid in cash without any deduction and/or charges at SNAP-ON place of payment in the following way:
 - a down payment of one third of the price immediately upon the Customer's receipt of the confirmation of order;
 - one third immediately upon SNAP-ON having notified the Customer of the readiness of the main parts of the Goods for despatch;
 - the remaining balance within 30 days from the date of notification of the readiness of the Goods for despatch.
- (3) Subject to prior agreement payment may be made by an irrevocable confirmed letter of credit payable at a German bank accepted as guarantor by the tax and custom authorities.
- (4) Upon default of the Customer SNAP-ON shall be entitled to interest in the amount of 8 % above the respective basic prime rate mentioned in § 247 Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch (German Civil Code) without prejudice to any other right to damages of SNAP-ON. Should the Customer fail to pay any sum due and payable after setting a reasonable written deadline, SNAP-ON is entitled to repudiate the Contract or to claim damages for breach of contract.
- (5) Any rights of retention of payment based on alleged remedies of the Customer against SNAP-ON or any other rights of the Customer against SNAP-ON which do not arise under the specific Contract (i.e. claims under another contract between the Customer and SNAP-ON) are expressly excluded. Any set-off with the Customer's claims against SNAP-ON claims is not allowed except insofar as such claims of the Customer are undisputed or subject of a final and conclusive judgement of a competent court.
- (6) SNAP-ON shall accept bills of exchange or cheques only upon prior written agreement but always provided that where payment is made by means of bill of exchange or cheque or any other negotiable or not negotiable instrument, SNAP-ON shall not be deemed to have received payment until the bill of exchange, cheque or other negotiable or not negotiable instrument has been honoured notwithstanding that SNAP-ON may have negotiated such instrument and received value therefore. Any costs of any kind in respect of the negotiation of any instrument as aforesaid are borne by the Customer.
- (7) SNAP-ON is entitled to request the Customer at any time to provide adequate security for its claims against the Customer. Irrespective of the dates of maturity of bills of exchange, cheques or other negotiable or not negotiable instrument accepted by SNAP-ON, any claims of SNAP-ON against the Customer shall be immediately due and payable upon occurrence of any of the following events:
 - (a) if the Customer does not fulfil any of its obligations within time,
 - (b) if the Customer is in breach with any other contractual obligation,
 - (c) if any circumstances arise which justify bona fide doubts as to the solvency of the Customer and might jeopardise SNAP-ON right to the consideration agreed.

V. Packing

The standard packing (boxes and pallet) provided by SNAP-ON EQUIPMENT is included in the price. Any special packing shall be requested in writing and paid for by the Customer.

General Conditions for Sale and Supply L 805 E

VI. Retention of Title

- (1) The title in the Goods shall remain with SNAP-ON until all its claims, regardless of the legal grounds, existing at the time of conclusion of the Contract, as well as future claims arising from the business relationship with the Customer, (§ 449 para 1 German Civil Code) have been satisfied. If SNAP-ON has accepted contingent commitments in the interest of the Customer, in particular but without limiting the generality thereof, bills of exchange and cheques, all Goods and deliveries shall remain SNAP-ON's property until it has been indemnified completely from all such commitments. This shall also apply to payments effected on specially designated receivables. If there is a current account agreement, the retention of title shall persist until complete settlement of the accepted balance; striking a balance and its acknowledgment shall not affect SNAP-ON's retention of title.
- (2) Processing or refashioning of the reserved Goods by the Customer is always effected in SNAP-ON's stead. If the Goods are bonded inseparably to other items which do not belong to SNAP-ON, it shall acquire co-ownership of the new item in accordance with the applicable laws (§§ 947, 948 German Civil Code). If the Customer acquires sole property of the new item, it shall assign co-ownership proportionate to the value of the Goods to the other bonded items at the time of bonding. The Customer shall therefore preserve the resulting sole property or joint property in SNAP-ON's stead.
- (3) If the Customer resells or hires out the reserved Goods alone or together with items which do not belong to SNAP-ON, the Customer shall assign to SNAP-ON by way of security all claims arising from the resale or leasing against the buyers, lessees or third parties to the extent of the amount of the invoice (including VAT) together with all secondary rights. If the resold goods are in SNAP-ON's co-property, only such quota of the claim is assigned which corresponds to the ratio of its co-ownership in the Goods. SNAP-ON hereby accepts such assignments. SNAP-ON grants the Customer a revocable authorization to collect the claims assigned to SNAP-ON as long as the Customer fulfil his obligations in connection with the contract in due time. In the event of this happening, however, SNAP-ON can demand that the Customer discloses to SNAP-ON all debtors and the assigned claims, provide all information necessary for collection, surrender the corresponding documents and notify the debtors of the assignment. In such case SNAP-ON can also notify the debtors itself and make use of its right to collection.
- (4) The Customer shall store the reserved Goods separately and in such way that they can be readily identified as being SNAP-ON property as long as title in the Goods has not yet passed to the Customer under the Conditions. Furthermore, the Customer is under the obligation to keep the reserved Goods in proper working condition until final transfer of ownership. If any maintenance work or repairs are necessary, then the Customer shall retain SNAP-ON repair shop or any other repair shop acceptable to SNAP-ON. The last mentioned obligation shall not arise in cases of emergency.
- (5) Should the Customer be in breach of contract, in particular be in default of payment, SNAP-ON shall have, upon prior notice and setting of a time limit to the Customer entitled to request and Customer is obliged to return the Goods to SNAP-ON. The retaking of the goods as well as pledging the Goods by SNAP-ON is not considered a withdrawal from the contract. In such case SNAP-ON or its duly authorized agents shall have the right to enter the premises of the Customer to execute the right to retake.
- (6) The Customer is entitled to resell, use or install the reserved Goods only within the ordinary and usual course of business and only subject to the condition that all claims have been assigned to SNAP-ON or that SNAP-ON has it has acquired co-ownership of the new item according to the previous paragraphs. The Customer must not pledge or give in security or dispose of the reserved Goods in any other manner.
- (7) The Customer has to inform SNAP-ON without delay of any confiscation or other disposition by third parties concerning the reserved Goods – even if SNAP-ON has acquired a co-ownership share – or concerning the claims assigned to SNAP-ON, submitting the documents necessary for filing its objection.
- (8) Customer shall be obliged to treat the reserved Goods with care and to insure all reserved Goods in particular against fire and theft at its own cost. All claims against the insurer with respect to the reserved Goods are herewith assigned to SNAP-ON. SNAP-ON herewith accepts such assignment.
- (9) If the Customer is resident in a foreign country, it shall do any act required by law or otherwise to make SNAP-ON's retention of title and its rights under this clause VI valid and effective.

- (10) Should the value of the reserved Goods be more than 20 % in excess of all sums due from the Customer to SNAP-ON, then SNAP-ON is obliged to transfer title in the reserved Goods to the Customer and release such Goods as aforesaid accordingly to the extent necessary to eliminate such excess.

VII. Terms of Delivery

- (1) SNAP-ON quotation of delivery periods is without legal obligation.
- (2) In principal the delivery period commences upon despatch of the confirmation of order.
- (3) The delivery period shall be met if the Goods have been produced within such period and the Customer has been notified on the readiness of the Goods for despatch.
- (4) Upon SNAP-ON notification that the Goods are ready for despatch the Customer is under the immediate obligation to accept delivery of the Goods. Should delivery not be accepted SNAP-ON is allowed to store the Goods at the Customer's costs and risk of loss and to invoice the Goods as delivered.
- (5) Reservation is made that SNAP-ON is supplied in a punctual and correct way with the material required to fulfil its obligations to the Customer.
- (6) The delivery period shall be extended by an appropriate amount of time in the event of force majeure which shall include but not be limited to acts of God, war, riots, industrial disputes, strikes and lock-outs and unforeseen obstacles which are beyond SNAP-ON control insofar as such obstacles can be shown to have exercised considerable influence on the completion or the delivery of the Goods. SNAP-ON shall not be liable as such events as aforesaid shall occur whilst delivery is already delayed. SNAP-ON shall notify the Customer as soon as possible upon commencement and termination of obstacles as aforesaid.
- (7) Partial deliveries are allowed. Each partial delivery shall be invoiced separately.
- (8) If the despatch of the Goods is delayed at request of the Customer or due to reasons which the Customer is responsible for, the Customer will be charged with the storage costs arising from the delay, incipient 30 days after informing the Customer that the Goods are ready for despatch. In the event that the Goods are stored in SNAP-ON's premises, the storage costs add up to 0,5 % of the invoice amount per month or part of thereof. Any of SNAP-ON's rights to claim for further damages caused by the delay hereby remain unaffected. SNAP-ON is also entitled to dispose of the Goods in another way, subject to the expiry of a reasonable period of grace set by SNAP-ON. In such case, the period of delivery shall be extended by a reasonable period of time.

VIII. Passing of risk and Acceptance of Delivery

- (1) The risk of loss and deterioration of the Goods shall pass to the Customer immediately upon despatch the Goods to the Customer. The same applies if SNAP-ON has accepted additional obligations such as transportation costs, transport, installation or assembly of the Goods.
- (2) Should despatch be delayed in consequence of circumstances for which the Customer is responsible the risk of loss and deterioration of the Goods shall pass to the Customer at the date of notification of readiness of the Goods for despatch by SNAP-ON to the Customer.
- (3) The Customer is under the obligation to accept delivery of the Goods irrespective of the Good's showing defect without prejudice of the Customer's rights arising from defects.

IX. Trading terms

The Incoterms 2000 version are applicable subject to the specific provisions of these Conditions or the Contract which shall prevail.

X. Delay in Delivery and Impossibility to Deliver

- (1) The Customer is entitled to compensation should SNAP-ON be in default of delivery and a damage be caused thereby. Such compensation as aforesaid shall be limited in amount to 0,5 % for each week in which SNAP-ON is in default of delivery but not be over and above of 5 % of the total value of such part of the total delivery which cannot be used in time according to the terms of the Contract by reason of SNAP-ON default in delivery as aforesaid. The amount of compensation shall be lower if SNAP-ON proves a lower damage or higher if the Customer proves a higher damage.
- (2) Notwithstanding the right to repudiate the Contract in case of defects (see XII. Warranty for defects and XIII. Warranty for title) the Customer may repudiate the Contract in case of default in delivery or impossibility to deliver due to a circumstance within SNAP-ON's control only if the delay in delivery or the impossibility to deliver as aforesaid are caused by a negligent or wilful act of the chief executive or a duly authorized agent of SNAP-ON.

General Conditions for Sale and Supply L 805 E

- (3) Should SNAP-ON not deliver within the delivery period, the Customer shall have the right to set a written final deadline of 30 days indicating expressly that the Customer will repudiate the Contract and/or claim for damages. Upon fruitless expiry of this deadline the Customer shall upon request declare whether the Customer still claims for delivery or for damages or will repudiate the Contract. The Customer is not entitled to repudiate the Contract or to claim for any damages instead of the delivery in case the Customer does not notify SNAP-ON within a reasonable deadline set by SNAP-ON about his intention.
- (4) Should SNAP-ON unjustifiably refuse the delivery or in case of specific circumstances that – after considering both parties interest – justify an immediate repudiation of the Contract, the Customer is not obliged to set a final written deadline as mentioned above in X. (3).
- (5) The Customer is not entitled to repudiate the Contract before the delivery is due or in case of an irrelevant breach of an obligation of SNAP-ON. Furthermore, the Customer is not allowed to repudiate the Contract in case circumstances that would allow such repudiation have wholly or partly been caused by the Customer or in case such circumstances occur during a delay in acceptance of the Customer.
- (6) For claims for damages see XIV. of the Conditions.

XI. Notice of Defects

- (1) Written notice of apparent defects or any other complaints, including but not limited to failure to comply with any particular agreement or guarantee as to the fitness of the Goods for a specific purpose, failure as to the quantity of the Goods, must be given without delay at the latest 14 days from the receipt of the Goods. Written notice of hidden defects must be given without delay at the latest 14 days from the discovery of such defects.
- (2) Should SNAP-ON not be notified of defects or any other complaints within the delays as set out in XI. (1) of the Conditions, SNAP-ON shall be discharged from all liability arising from defects of the Goods or any other complaints and any rights of the Customer of whatsoever nature are excluded.

XII. Warranty for Defects

- (1) Should the Customer notify SNAP-ON in accordance with XI. of the Conditions of an existing defect of the Goods or of any other complaint as mentioned in XI. (1) of the Conditions SNAP-ON liability shall according to SNAP-ON choice be limited to either replace or repair such defective Goods, provided that the Customer shows, that the defect or any other complaint was already existent at the point in time of the passing of the risk. In case the Customer notifies SNAP-ON of an existing defect of the instruction for the installation of the Goods, SNAP-ON liability shall be limited to the providing of an instruction for the installation without any defects, but only provided that the defect of the instruction for installation made it in fact impossible for the Customer to duly install the Goods. The warranty period shall run for 12 months commencing upon the actual delivery of the goods. SNAP-ON shall be liable for a period of 24 months in the event of the death or personal injury of the Customer. SNAP-ON shall not be liable for defects of used or second-hand goods.
- (2) If SNAP-ON tried to remedy the defect twice or made one replacement delivery without the defect being eliminated, the Customer can reduce the purchasing price by a reasonable amount or, after fruitless expiration of a reasonable grace period for reasons for which SNAP-ON is to be held responsible, cancel the contract provided that giving a grace period is not dispensable by law pursuant to §§ 281 para 2, 323 para 2 German Civil Code. This shall also be applicable if SNAP-ON refuses to remedy a defect without justification, delays it for an unreasonable period of time, or if remedying the defect should have become unacceptable to the Customer for other reasons. However, the Customer may not cancel the Contract if the defect is trivial.
- (3) SNAP-ON liability for defects in respect of products which have been supplied by a third party shall be limited to assigning its rights and claims against such third party to the Customer. Should the Customer not be able to enforce its rights against the supplier of such products as aforesaid, SNAP-ON shall be liable for defects as set out in the Conditions.
- (4) The Customer is under the obligation after consultation of SNAP-ON to grant SNAP-ON the time required to repair or to replace the Goods and to do all necessary steps to allow SNAP-ON a repair of the Goods or a replacement delivery.
- (5) SNAP-ON is under no obligation to repair or to any replacement delivery, in case the costs for such repair or replacement delivery are unreasonably high. The costs shall be deemed as unreasonably high if they exceed 25 % of the purchase price of the Goods.

- (6) Any Goods or parts thereof which have been replaced by SNAP-ON in consequence of its liability for defects shall be the property of SNAP-ON and shall be returned to SNAP-ON at request and SNAP-ON shall bear the costs for the return transport of such Goods or parts up to the lowest available transport rates.
- (7) Should Customer's notification of defects be unjustified, SNAP-ON will be entitled to claim for all costs that arise from such unjustified notice of defects.
- (8) Without limiting its liability for defects SNAP-ON expressly excludes any liability arising in particular on the following grounds: irrelevant deviation from the agreed quality of the Goods and irrelevant reduction according to the usability as well as inappropriate or improper use of the goods, defective installation or starting-up by the Customer or third parties, usual wear and tear, improper or negligent handling in particular excessive work load, inappropriate working material, substitute working material, insufficient construction work, inappropriate building ground, chemical or electrical influences as long as these are not caused by a grossly negligent or wilful act of SNAP-ON.
- (9) Should the Customer transfer the goods to another place than the place where he has ordered the goods and should the costs for repair or replacement delivery, including but not limited to costs for transport, work and material, therefore increase, the Customer shall only be entitled to claim for the costs that would also have arisen in case the goods still had been at the place to which they were delivered, unless the transfer of the goods corresponds with the normal use of such goods.

XIII. Warranty of Title

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed SNAP-ON shall deliver the goods free from third parties rights or justified claims founded on industrial or other intellectual property (hereinafter referred to: intellectual property) in the country being the destination of SNAP-ON delivery. In case any third party shall assert a claim against the Customer founded on the violation of intellectual property by the Goods that have been delivered by SNAP-ON and that are used in correspondence with the Contract, SNAP-ON shall be liable within 12 months after delivery as follows:
- (2) SNAP-ON liability shall according to SNAP-ON choice be limited to either provide a licence concerning the intellectual property, change the goods insofar that they will no longer violate intellectual property or replace them. In case SNAP-ON cannot take such measures on the usual and reasonable conditions, the Customer may repudiate the Contract or request for a reduction of the price or claim for damages according to XIV. Damages.
- (3) SNAP-ON shall only be under the obligation to take measures as mentioned in XIII. (2) if the Customer has notified SNAP-ON immediately in writing about such third parties claims and if the Customer has not acknowledged such violation and always provided that SNAP-ON may decide about all measures that shall be taken to defend SNAP-ON and about all amicable settlements at SNAP-ON own discretion. Should the Customers top the use of the delivered Goods in order to minimise the damage or for whatever important reason, the Customer is under the obligation to notify the third party that this shall not be deemed as an acknowledgement of a violation of intellectual property.
- (4) Any claim of the Customer for defects of title are excluded if and to the extent the Customer is liable for the violation of the intellectual property, including but not limited to the following cases: the Customer has caused the violation because of specific indications given to SNAP-ON or by a use of the Goods that was not agreed upon by the parties or by changing the delivered Goods or using them together with products that have not been delivered by SNAP-ON.

XIV. Damages

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the Conditions all claims for damages of Customer, i.e. liability for defects, the liability for impossibility of performance and delay in delivery, any liability for damages arising from a breach of any obligation before or at the time of contracting, breach of secondary contractual obligations, tort, or any other consequential loss or damage of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising shall be excluded. The same applies to any liability of whatsoever nature of SNAP-ON's duly authorized personnel or other persons performing SNAP-ON's obligations under the Contract.
- (2) SNAP-ON shall only be liable if and to the extent that it can be shown that SNAP-ON, its executives or its duly authorized agents were acting wilfully or with gross negligence, including such cases in which SNAP-ON was in breach of cardinal obligations whereby the overall purpose of the Contract was jeopardised. Such breach of cardinal obligations would be when we neglect duties the Customer has always relied upon and may duly rely upon and the fulfilment of which is fundamental for correct execution of the contract.

General Conditions for Sale and Supply L 805 E

- (3) In case of a slightly negligent breach of cardinal obligations, SNAP-ON liability shall be limited to the amount of the value of the order.
- (4) Should, as an exception, the value of the order mentioned in XIV. (3) not correspond to the typically foreseeable damages that arise from such breach of cardinal obligations, then SNAP-ON liability shall be limited to such typically foreseeable damages.
- (5) The exclusion of liability shall not apply with regard to claims arising under the German Product Liability Act or in case SNAP-ON has given a guarantee as to the fitness of the goods for a specific purpose or as to their long-lastingness and the guaranty was intended to protect the Customer against damages which do not arise in the Goods themselves. Furthermore, this exclusion of liability shall not apply with regard to claims that arise from personal injury or death of the Customer.

XV. Miscellaneous

Upon prior notice to the Customer, SNAP-ON shall have the right to inspect the Goods in the Customer's premises, to take notice of the operating results and to demonstrate the equipment to its prospective buyers should the Customer not prove that SNAP-ON right as aforesaid shall jeopardise the Customer's interest to business confidentiality or any other important interest.

XVI. Place of Performance/Jurisdiction

- (1) Place of performance for SNAP-ON and the Customer is Pfungstadt.
- (2) Exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any actual or future disputes arising under or in connection with the business relationship (including claims under bills of exchange or cheques) shall be the courts in Darmstadt, without prejudice to the claimant's right to commence proceedings at the defendant's place of business.

XVII. Applicable law

These Conditions and any Contract hereunder between SNAP-ON and the Customer shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany including the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG).

XVIII. Final provisions

- (1) The headings of the above provisions are for convenience only and have no importance for the interpretation of these conditions.
- (2) Should any of these provisions be invalid or become invalid for whatsoever reason the remaining provisions shall be unaffected. In such case the statutory regulations shall be applicable in addition.
- (3) Where appropriate in these Conditions the singular shall include the plural and vice versa and where there are two or more persons, firms or companies comprised in the definition of the Customer then the obligations imposed on them shall be joint and several obligations.

Snap-on Equipment GmbH
Konrad-Zuse-Straße 1 • D-84579 Unterneukirchen
Company Headquarters • Werner-von-Siemens-Straße 2 • D-64319 Pfungstadt
Registered at Darmstadt Court HRB 8482